.....often says I can act and behave like a big kid. My Friends, Children and wife say I'm still young at heart, WHAT COULD BE BETTER?.....

My conservative Canberra childhood didn't sit well with a tie-dyed spirit. A rural relocation, and growing up three boisterous boys gave slight reprieve. Then : Seachange!.....

can you sum up your life in as many words as your age?

Tumut Toastmasters

have a fun contest for people to share their story.

The local winner of this contest will receive 3 FREE life coaching sessions in Tumut, and the winner from outside the region will win a night at a local bed and breakfast retreat.

About Tumut Toastmasters

Tumut Toastmasters is a non-profit organisation which creates improved self-confidence through public speaking.

Guests are always more than welcome to attend, and a fun night out is guaranteed.

Improving self-confidence and leadership skills can assist to improve relationships, better manage staff, run effective meetings, and earn respect in front of your peers.

Participation in Toastmasters is self-directed and members can focus on communication and/or leadership development using internationally reviewed resources.

The first speech a new member delivers is the "Icebreaker" which is a short presentation all about them self.

Visit the website for more details, or come along to a meeting and see how much fun you can have telling tales with locals. We meet 7:15pm, 1st and 3rd Mondays at the Tumut Senior Citizens Centre
